

SDA Board Position: Past President

What type of things does the Past President do?

Role: Reporting directly to the Board, the role of the past president is to function as a resource for the president. The past president supports the president of the Board by working towards organizational goals.

Term: One Year

Duties: The past president shall:

- a) Be available to the new President for advice and counsel.
- b) Assist the Board in transition from one business year to the next.
- c) Assists in making sure any unfinished business is carried over and completed.
- d) Assumes the responsibilities of the President of the Board in his/her absence.
- e) Be invited to attend all the meetings of the Board of Directors as an ex-officio member without voting power. Attend meetings of the Board of Directors, executive committee meetings and the AGM as required.
- f) Accede to the presidency in the event that a permanent vacancy in the presidency arises.
- g) Accept responsibilities as delegated by the President of the SDA Board.

Estimated number of hours: Varies