

Private Practice Dietitians in Saskatchewan

Private Practice Dietitians set their own rates, so contact the individual dietitian or check their website for pricing. The cost for private practice dietitian services are covered by some insurance providers, so check your coverage. If dietitian services are not currently covered by your insurance plan, speak to your employer and/or provider and express your interest in having dietitian services covered in the future. This list is alphabetical by company name. In brackets you will see the location of the community in which the company's main office is located. The majority of the private practice dietitians will provide services throughout the province, so please contact them directly for more information.
