

Interjurisdictional Dietetic Practice with Residents of Saskatchewan

Applicant Name: _____

Name of Jurisdiction(s) where you are currently licensed and your registration #: _____

Please describe the professional services you will be providing to a resident(s) of Saskatchewan. Specify if the service will be delivered in person or virtual, the location if in person, if it is a short term follow up to services or a program delivered out of province or if is a service not available in the province.

Are you seeking temporary or full practising licensure (see description below)?

Start Date and if known end date: _____

Temporary licensure with SDA can be issued for a minimum of one month to max of three months with the condition that the dietitian remains fully licensed in another Canadian dietetic regulatory body and participates in their continuing competence/quality assurance program. If you are eligible for and requesting temp licensure, please indicate the length of time you are requesting temporary licensure. Cost is $27.50 per month but will be waived if you meet the criteria set out in the registration policies (ie. short term follow up for services received out of province or for services not available in province).

Full licensure with SDA is $330 per licensing year (April 1-March 31) or $165 for half year (Oct. 1-March 31) and must participate in the SDA continuing competence program.
