PROFESSIONAL PRACTICE OBLIGATIONS

Saskatchewan
College of Dietitians

2018, Updated May 2026

Standard

Registered Dietitians protect the public by providing professional services in compliance with applicable legislative and regulatory requirements.

Indicators

To demonstrate this standard, Registered Dietitians will:

- a) Accept as their primary professional obligation, to protect and serve the public interest according to SCD Code of Ethics.
- b) Hold a valid license and practice in compliance with applicable legislative and regulatory requirements.
- c) Maintain a level of personal and professional conduct that upholds the integrity and dignity of the profession and sustains public confidence.
- d) Comply with duty to report requirements in accordance with applicable legislation, regulations, and/or organization/employer policies.
- e) Report abuse, incapacity, incompetence or unprofessional conduct to the appropriate authority, in accordance with applicable legislation, regulations, and/or organization/employer policies.
- f) Take responsibility and be accountable to practice within their personal level of competence.
- g) Provide supervision, mentoring, and direction to those under their supervision (e.g., students, nutrition practicum students, staff, volunteers).
- h) Accurately represent their professional qualifications, experience, knowledge, and skills.
- i) Voluntarily withdraw themselves from professional practice when circumstances exist that impair their professional judgment, impact competence, or that may cause harm to clients.
- j) Ensure they have the appropriate practice permit/license to deliver services by virtual dietetic practice.
- k) Use provincially protected titles.

Practice Outcome

Clients can expect Registered Dietitians to provide professional services in compliance with legislative and regulatory requirements.
